

MR. CARLISLE'S BILL
TO BE WITHDRAWNHIS CURRENCY MEASURE WILL NOT BE PUSHED.

He Gives His Consent Today to the Substitution of Another Document in Place of the One That Has Met So Much Opposition—General News From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—[Special] Secretary Carlisle's bill will be withdrawn and a substitute will be presented. This move is made with the secretary's consent. Mr. Sperry of Connecticut was the first speaker yesterday when the house went into committee of the whole on the currency bill. He argued for the Carlisle measure, saying that while personally he did not favor the revival of state banks, he would be willing to acquiesce under the conditions imposed by the pending bill in order to secure the other good features of the measure. He was a believer in the safety fund principle, he said, because it insured the prompt redemption of the notes without expense to the holders. It made the notes practically a national currency. He argued all legal tenders and treasury notes of the government should be retired. Their existence was running the government into debt to maintain gold payments. One hundred million had already been borrowed, and if he were to indulge in prophecy $50,000,000 more of bonds would be issued before Washington's birthday.

Mr. Brosius (rep., Pa.), who followed in opposition, criticized the democratic party for its dissensions, and said the party as a whole were not in favor of the bill.

Mr. Breckinridge of Kentucky reported an important urgent deficiency bill, appropriating $300,000 for the census—$125,000 for salaries and $175,000 for printing the report. This appropriation included the deficiency bill which passed the house a few days ago and which is now being held up in the senate. Mr. Breckinridge said that unless this supplementary bill was passed immediately the work of the census would stop.

Mr. Cannon of Illinois prevailed on Mr. Breckinridge to accept an amendment appropriating $125,000 for the fees of jurors (also included in the former bill), and as amended the bill was passed.

On motion of Mr. Sickles of New York a bill was passed to pension the widow of the late Major-General Nathaniel P. Banks at the rate of $100 per month. There was no debate on the bill.

Mr. Outhwaite presented a joint resolution for the usual holiday adjournment to begin Saturday, Dec. 22, and end Thursday, Jan. 3. The resolution was privileged. Mr. English of New Jersey, arose with the intention of offering an amendment to adjourn today, and when Mr. Outhwaite cut him off with a demand for the previous question the gentleman from New Jersey gave notice that he would demand a quorum. The vote only developed the presence of forty-five members, and when Mr. English made the point of no quorum, Mr. Outhwaite withdrew the resolution.

STARK AND WEBSTER.

Statues of New Hampshire's Sons Presented to Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Patriotism and statesmanship were the themes of speeches in the senate yesterday, when the state of New Hampshire presented to the government statues of John Stark and Daniel Webster. Exercises began at 2 o'clock, when Senator Chandler had read a letter from the governor of New Hampshire, saying that the state had placed in statutory hall the statues of her distinguished sons. A resolution thanking the state was offered by Senator Perkins, and on this resolution Mr. Gallinger addressed the senate.

The list of speakers in the senate included the two senators from New Hampshire, Messrs. Chandler and Gallinger, who spoke impartially of the subjects of both the statues; the two Massachusetts senators, Hoar and Lodge, who devoted themselves to the life and service of Webster; and Senators Morgan, Morrill, Davis, Culom, Platt and Mitchell of Oregon, who also spoke of Mr. Webster, while Senators Proctor and Dubois confined their remarks to Gen. Stark.

In the house the Stark speeches were made by Messrs. Baker, Powers, Curtis and Blair, and the Webster speeches by Messrs. Blair, Everett, Grout and Banker. The galleries were not crowded at any time, but the attendance was larger than on average days. At the conclusion of the speeches on Gen. Stark in the senate the resolution offered by Mr. Perkins thanking New Hampshire for the statue was adopted.

It is claimed that during the present generation few speeches have been delivered in the senate chamber so genuinely eloquent as the eulogy pronounced by Senator Hoar of Massachusetts.

TALK OF THE BILL.

Conference Discusses Amendments to the Currency Measure.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—A conference was held at the treasury department yesterday between Mr. Carlisle and Chairman Springer of the house committee on banking and currency relative to amending the Carlisle currency bill now before the house. The subject was gone over fully, and as a result Mr. Springer will propose a number of amendments designated to remove some of the objections advanced against the bill. One objection is that under section 7 some banks may be permitted to take a circulation of 90 per cent of their capital stock, while the bill limits circulation to 75 per cent. This would be remedied by requiring the excess, if any, to be retired by deposit of greenbacks, under existing provisions of law.

The time in which the banks will be required to comply with the new law may be extended for two years. The bill will make clear that billholders of national bank notes will be protected during the time the old banks are conforming to the new law. Another amendment will provide the government will receive the old notes for internal taxes and cancel them and issue notes under the new law. Consideration of the three important amendments which have been urged on the floor of the house—the issue of bonds to retire outstanding greenbacks, the elimination of state banks, and the limiting of a bank's liability for the losses to other banks to 1 per cent. As to a bond issue to retire the greenbacks this will probably be offered as an amendment, but it is believed the feeling against bond issues will defeat the amendment. The elimination of state banks and the limiting of bank liability will also be presented as independent amendments.

Representative Grow of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to amend the national banking act. It authorizes the deposit of legal tenders instead of bonds to secure circulation. The circulating bank notes are to be exempt from taxation and are to have the same legal tender qualities and the same form of redemption as the old national bank notes.

BOYCOTT UNCLE SAM.

European Nations May Combine Against Tariff Rules.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—There is every prospect the action of the German government in relating against this country for imposing a discriminating duty on sugar is but the beginning of a concerted movement in which all the continental nations may combine. The outlook is an exceedingly serious one, and the question when it comes up before congress in proper shape is almost certain to be of such a character that some action will be absolutely necessary. There are indications, it may be said on high official authority, that the European nations are gradually coming together and taking steps to shut out not only American beef but American pork as well.

There is nothing to prevent Germany from going further and there are hints that petroleum will be the next article placed under the ban. Secretary Gresham is fully alive to the gravity of the situation, but he is utterly powerless to do anything himself. Nothing can be done to annul an act of congress by means of any new treaty and congress must itself supply the remedy. The matter will surely be introduced in congress within a short time.

Why the Behring Sea Award Is Made

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Secretary Gresham yesterday sent to the house, in answer to a resolution calling for an explanation of his reasons for arranging with Great Britain for the payment of the claims of British sealing vessels, a letter, in which he sums up the matter as follows:

"It appears from the submitted correspondence that the agreement to pay a lump sum of $425,000 in full settlement of all demands authorized to be made under the treaty and award was proposed by this government. The amount is considerably below the damages claimed by Great Britain, exclusive of interest for a number of years. If this arrangement does not receive the approval of congress and the disputed questions are submitted to an international commission it is believed that the amounts allowed and the expenses of the tribunal, including witnesses and the taking of their testimony will largely exceed $425,000. In view of all the facts and what may be reasonably expected as the result of a commission, the undersigned submits that a prompt and final settlement of the vexatious controversy by an appropriation of the lump sum agreed upon is advisable."

Charges Against Judge Clarke.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The senate held a brief executive session yesterday to permit Mr. Harris of Tennessee to enter a motion for a reconsideration of the vote by which the nomination of Judge Clarke to be district judge of the eastern and middle districts of Tennessee was confirmed. In entering the motion Senator Harris said he had been informed of serious charges against Mr. Clarke, which he thought should be investigated while there was yet opportunity. This opportunity was found in the fact that the time for reconsideration had not elapsed since his confirmation, which took place on the 18th inst.

THE ORIENTAL WAR
IS NOW AT AN ENDAT LEAST PEACE PROPOSITIONS
ARE DISCUSSED.

Messages Are Passing Between the Capitals of China and Japan Which Will Probably Result in Some Kind of an Agreement—News From Foreign Lands.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 21.—[Special]—Peace negotiations are now proceeding between Peking and Tokio. The first hint of such an action came in the form of dispatches from Tokio indicating clearly that, practically, the war between China and Japan is ended. Whatever instructions have been conveyed to the commanders of the respective military and naval forces from the governing powers of the two empires is not told in the advices, but assurances are given in quarters known to be thoroughly cognizant of diplomatic affairs that the emperor of China has been prevailed upon to hasten commissioners to Japan, and that these envoys have such power of concession as will, without doubt, enable them to bring about an immediate and complete end of hostilities. The details of their authority are not given, but the presumption is not ignored in diplomatic quarters that the concessions asked by the Japanese government have met with the acquiescence of the reigning powers of China.

BRITAIN AND GERMANY AT OUTS.

Letter Preparing a Crusade Against the Former on Samoa's Account.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The correspondent of the Times at Berlin telegraphs that it may safely be assumed that the colonial politicians in Germany are preparing a crusade against Great Britain on the subject of Samoa. The Neuste Nachrichten claims to know that Great Britain is willing to exchange Zanzibar for Samoa, and says that the idea could only be entertained if Great Britain was willing to cede Zanzibar, Witma and Uganda, and even the surrender of Samoa would be the source of great annoyance to Germany. The Vossische Zeitung says that the suggestions of the Neuste Nachrichten are proof of the ambition engendered by Chancellor von Hohenlohe's colonial program.

BANKERS IN CELLS
IN SPITE OF PLEASMEADOWCROFTS SENTENCED
IN CHICAGO.

Judge Brenanto Refused to Grant Their Motion For a New Trial and They Are Taken to Jail For the Night—Kept Up Their Nerve Through It All.

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—After listening to arguments by Attorneys Eddy for the defense and Morrison for the state, in the Meadowcroft case yesterday, Judge Brenanto denied the motion for a new trial, sentenced the convicted bankers, and they were immediately taken to the county jail. The attorneys on both sides came into court promptly on time. Shortly after the opening hour the two defendants, accompanied by their counsel, ex-Judge Collins and Attorneys Eddy and House, appeared and took the seats they have occupied during the trial. Mrs. Charles Meadowcroft came with her husband and sat by his side during the hearing of the arguments. The lawyers for the state with the exception of Mr. Trude were on hand early. Judge Brenanto did not take his seat on the bench until half an hour after the time for opening the morning session. During the wait the attorneys conversed about the bulky bill of receipts which the counsel for the defense have prepared for the purpose of carrying the case to a higher court. The bill contains about 1,000 typewritten pages, and each exception taken by the defense to the court's ruling is dwelt upon. The Meadowcrofts' attorneys have not decided whether the bill will be filed in the State Supreme court or the Appellate court. If it is taken to the Supreme court they will have an opportunity to attack the validity of the statute upon which the case based its indictment, but if the document is carried into the Appellate court this point can not be raised. In speaking of the matter Judge Collins said that it amounts to but the flip of a copper which court is appealed to to change the results reached in the case by the verdict of the Criminal court jury.

WAITING FOR NEW YEAR.

The Iron Trade Review Discusses the General Situation.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 21.—The Iron Trade Review says: "Recent developments in iron and steel have begotten unanimous desire among producers for a new year and a new deal. Statistics of pig iron stocks show that coke iron has been piled to an extent beyond expectation and where makers have been compelled to stay on the market they have parted with their product at a figure that in some cases has meant a loss on every ton, if books are rightly kept. The largest producer of southern iron has decided to suspend sales calling for long deliveries until there is a chance for the better, but this has not prevented other producers, north and south, from giving buyers the full benefit of the existing weakness. It is conceded by buyers that the prices are too low to last and when the more anxious producers are filled up with orders the reaction may be looked for."

EYE SHOWS THE MURDERER.

Photography May Unearth Mystery Surrounding a Double Crime.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Dec. 21.—Photographic science may have given the first tangible clew to the identity of the murderer of Mrs. Shearman and Mrs. Davis. Yesterday the impression of the murderer was found on the retina of Mrs. Shearman's eye. The photograph was taken by a local photographer. The existence of the impression of the murderer on the eye was first discovered by means of a powerful microscope. Unfortunately the features of the man could not be seen as the view shows only the back and a little of the side. The coroner has taken out both the eyes of the murdered woman, and another photograph will be taken to-day by a skilled photographer. No impression was discovered on Mrs. Davis' eyes.

The F. Dohmen Co., Rondy, Peck-

has been an opinion prevalent in some quarters that this village is dead, but the fact that over fifty of the representative wholesale houses doing business in Wisconsin have sent their traveling men here in the short space of time noted, indicates that our merchants are doing business and that Milton is not a defunct village.

President S. Plantz of Lawrence University gave a second lecture in the course here Wednesday evening on "Peculiarities of Great Men." He had a good house. After some opening remarks in which he spoke of the years he spent here in school and the good work done by Milton college, he took up his subject "Great Men as a Rule Were Not Physically Great." He gave numerous instances in proof of this. In their methods of writing their were marked peculiarities.
One filling his room with manuscripts, then locking it,
and doing the same in another until he had filled six rooms. Many of them were very superstitious. One would not enter his house without putting his right foot forward. They were unfortunate in the selection of their wives, he would not advise the ladies to marry a man of genius.
Among other things was their absent mindedness, their self conceit and being improvident. Yet with all their peculiarities they have done much for the race. The audience enjoyed his lecture very much. Rev. Frank A.
Pease gives the next, January 5, 1895.
In the notice of Mrs. F. D. Griggs' death the compositor made it read Briggs. The college students held a very enjoyable social at the chapel
Tuesday evening and got acquainted with each other. The public schools closed Tuesday for the holiday vacation and will begin again on Wednesday, January 2. Never before in the history of this village has there been so much building in the winter as during the past three months.

It is reported that Rev. L. C. Randolph of Chicago, will come here next month and conduct a series of union revival meetings. Dr. J. M. Stillman of the college musical department has a large class in vocal music. He can make you sing if any one can. W.
J. Potter, general agent of the Milwaukee Sentinel, was in the village Tuesday. Charles Saunders was in town this week. Miss Bersie Tomkins, assistant in the Merrill high school, is at home to enjoy her holiday vacation. Mrs. Clem W. Crumb went to Darien to visit relatives. Frank A.

Root has been doing the compositor
act in the Telephone office this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Hall were the guests of Milton friends this week.
Miss Ada Blunt of Johnstown, was the guest of Milton friends Wednesday. A letter has been received announcing the safe arrival at Yokohama, Japan, of Miss Rose Palmberg, M.
D., the Seventh day Baptist medical missionary enroute to Shanghai. Her many friends and acquaintances will be glad to note the fact. D. F. Brown

ited relatives and friends Thursday.
George Crosby, who is a student in the Chicago Homeopathic Medical college, is at home for the holidays. The total number of pieces of mail handled at the post office for the week ending December 15 aggregated 7,072. Of this 3,419 pieces were first class mail.
As this is a fair average and makes the total for a year 367,744 pieces. If there is another village in the state of its size that can beat these figures let them speak up.

EVANGELIST DOING GOOD WORK

Large Houses Show That the Crop is Rapidly Ripening.

The union evangelistic services continue with good attendance with deepening interest, and gratifying results. The cards that are being signed and the expressions in various ways, show that the work is taking a stronger and stronger hold as the meetings proceed. The mid-week Sabbath was a day of marked power and profit.

The subject tonight is "God's Blockade of the Road to Hell."

No services will be held on Saturday
but on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock another meeting for men only will be held. The final services of the series comes Sunday night. All these ser-

W. S. CLEVELAND LOCKED IN A CELL

Minstrel Manager Manacled and Muled
for Mistaking a Marshal.

W. S. Cleveland the minstrel manager who is well known here, got into trouble at Delphos, Ohio, where he was thrown into jail at midnight, bandcuffed and refused bail because as he claims, his doorkeeper mistook
the town marshal for a hoodlum and refused free admission. The charge was playing without a village license.
Cleveland was not taken from jail
until daylight. The mayor fined him $10 and costs and told him to hurry out of town. Cleveland has commenced action against the town of Delphos for $50,000, and also against the arresting officers. His contract required the opera house to furnish the license.

FLINT CAUSED ALL SOME PEOPLE SAY

EAU CLAIRE PEOPLE BLAME THE PROFESSOR.

In An Indefinite Sort of Way Many People Believe That the Whole Briggs-Pickin-Leonard Case Is the Result of His Fertile Brain—Fear a Lynching.

For a man who showed as little hypnotic power as Herbert Flint did at his last engagement here, the long whiskered professor seems to be doing quite well, thank you.

Many people in Eau Claire believe in an indefinite sort of a way that he is responsible for the condition of the two girls, Mabel Briggs and Alma Leonard, whose charges against Dr.
Pickin and son Asigal have been attracting attention all over the country.
The girls claim the Pickins abducted
and ill treated them in various ways,
by placing them under hypnotic influence, and they now assert that Dr.
Pickin exercises a mental control over their actions from a distance. The psychological features of this case have been discussed during the last six weeks from one end of the country to the other and in Eau Claire the guilt of the Pickins is widely believed in.

There is, however, a class of thinking people who believe the whole sensational affair originated in the fertile brain of Herbert A. Flint. The latter was called when the girls were in a hypnotic trance shortly after Mabel Briggs was recovered from the house of the Pickins. He was asked to dehypnotize them, and did so apparently. Since that time the two girls have gone into a succession of trances
during which they claim to have read out of Dr. Pickin's mind a career of murder and devilishness such as was never heard before.

Fear a Riot.

Some weeks ago a committee of prominent citizens called on the newspaper publishers of Eau Claire and asked to have all matter relating to the hypnotic cases suppressed, as it was feared that the publication of facts in the case might incite a lynching.
The newspapers took no notice of this request further than that they did not go into the matter as fully as they had been doing. Within the last week there have been incidents that renewed the fear of violence against the Pickins, and Mayor Cameron was called on to take any action he deemed necessary to allay excitement. It was urged that an exhibition of the sort given by the Flint would be apt to exasperate people to an even greater extent against the men now awaiting trial, and the mayor was requested to secure a cancellation of the Christmas engagement.

Mayor Cameron has written to Prof.
Flint asking him not to visit Eau Claire this winter but as yet no answer has been received. Dr. Flint is a personal friend of many well known men in Eau Claire, and the state of affairs is making them very indignant.
On every visit to this city the mesmerist and his daughter have been entertained by prominent families, and they are well-liked. There is likely to be a rather lively time over the matter before it is settled.

FOUNTAIN PEN FACTORY HERE.

George S. Parker Co. to Manufacture Its Own Goods in Future.

Beginning next month the George
S. Parker Pen Co., will manufacture its own stock, something that only two or three of the largest pen companies in the country attempt. The usual practice is to buy the gold pens
from one company, the rubber holders from another and assemble them as needed. The Parker company's business has grown however until an enlargement of facilities is demanded.
A complete equipment for working rubber is being set up in the third floor of the opera house block. Five lathes, vulcanizing furnaces, molds
and other machinery is included.
The new department will be inaugurated modestly but provision will be made for enlargement as required.
None but expert workmen are to be employed the force being brought from Somerville, Conn.

Use It In Time.

Catarrh starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat, and is in fact, the general enemy of the mucous membrane. Neglected colds in the head almost invariably precede catarrh, causing an excessive flow of mucous, and if the mucous discharge becomes interrupted the disagreeable results of catarrh will follow, such as bad breath, severe pain across forehead and about eyes, a roaring and buzzing sound in the ears and oftentimes a very offensive discharge. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles.

TEACHERS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

F. P. Starr of Afton Made President of the County Association.

The Rock County Teachers Association elected officers at their Janesville session as follows:

President—F. P. Starr.
Vice President—Miss Fullsom.
Secretary and Treasurer—E. M.
Cox.

The meeting was an enthusiastic
one. The program consisted of a paper entitled "School Discipline" by Miss Kate Connell; "Geography" by Mr. Buckley of Madison university;
"How Reading is Taught at the Blind Institute" by Miss Lizzie Brown and a lecture by L. D. Harvey of Milwaukee. The subjects were all handled in a first class manner and full of deep thought. Each was followed by lively discussions.

PROF. LAMKIN HOME FROM A TOUR

Found It Rather Difficult Work To Secure
Dates For His Lectures.

According to the Sharon Reporter,
Professor J. L. Lamkin has returned to his home near that village, after a three weeks' trip to Janesville, Beloit and Clinton, last Monday. He spent about a week in each place trying to make arrangements to deliver one of his lectures, but found it rather difficult work procuring a hall. He says that is about the only obstacle he has met with on his entire trip, excepting at Beloit, where the landlord of the Central House kicked him out and ordered him never to come back again.

THE CHICAGO OF WISCONSIN.

Janesville Is So Christened By the Mil-

The Milwaukee Journal gives this good town a well deserved compliment in speculating on the next "state race meeting" place of the League of American Wheelmen. "Janesville,"
said the Journal, "was enthusiastic at one time, but she seems to have lost much of her enthusiasm. This is somewhat strange. It is the miniature Chicago of the state and could hospitably entertain the state wheelmen."

New Plating Works.

A new method of plating with a metal that is mined in India, is being put into operation by R. A. Green of The Hub, 103 West Milwaukee street.
Mr. Green is having wonderful success with it as the metal is guaranteed to keep its color, and none but an expert could tell it from genuine silver. It is a very desirable plating process as it can be done with half the expense of silver, and it looks just as well. All those having silverware of any kind to plate can leave it at The Hub and see samples of the work.

Crapt. 365 Laws of 1891, reads in part as follows:—"The county treasurer shall be ex-officio treasurer of the asylum and shall keep separate accounts of all moneys appropriated to the asylum by the county board or otherwise received, and pay out the same only upon warrants signed by the president and secretary of the board of trustees."

Accordingly, by resolution of the board of supervisors at its November, 1891, session, the sum of $3721 was appropriated and transferred to the asylum fund, into which all money received has been put, and from which all money needed for current expenses has been drawn. Since that time (three years ago) no appropriation has been made for the asylum or alms house, except for the current expenses of the per diem mileage and livery for trustees, and for purchasing the Barker farm, and erecting and furnishing the new building thereon. At the beginning of the current fiscal year, Oct. 1, 1894, our ex-officio treasurer had, as before stated, a balance of only $838.82 subject to our draft. We now find it necessary to appeal to the board for an appropriation of $5,000 to be transferred by the treasurer to the asylum fund for the current expenses of the asylum and alms house.

In the plans for the equipment of the new asylum and alms house buildings, an estimated cost of about $6,000, were included. Only a building for a hog pen and corn crib, absolutely indispensable, has been erected at a cost of $410.

A barn for horses, milch cows, a granary, corn crib and wagon shed is greatly needed, and should be put up before the year closes. The trustees estimate that for such a structure, for new fences for providing a room for restraint and other much needed improvements the sum of $4,000 will be necessary. They therefore recommend an appropriation for these purposes, of $4,000.

We annex hereto, and make a part of our own report, the reports of the superintendent and physician, which will give detailed information regarding the insane and alms house, and which, we trust, will furnish proof that the affairs of the asylum and alms house have been judiciously managed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
S. T. MERRILL,
WM. GUNN,
WM. ZULL.

DROWNED WOMAN LAID TO REST

Funeral of Mrs. P. C. Ford Held this Afternoon—Other Deaths.

The remains of Mrs. Catherine Ford who was found drowned yesterday morning, were buried in Mount Olivet annex this afternoon. Friends gathered at the home at 2:30 o'clock and accompanied the funeral party to the grave. It was a solemn and peculiar gathering. Because of the circumstances surrounding the death no minister was present to speak words of cheer and comfort to the survivors. The rules of the church to which she had belonged in early life, but which she had neglected for many years, also forbade the placing of the body in consecrated ground.

Stephen E. Grogan.
Death came to Stephen E. Grogan at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of his mother, Mrs. Katherine Grogan, 301 South Academy street, after a struggle of some months duration with consumption. Besides his mother two brothers, Frank M. and Joseph A., and two sisters, Mrs. C. Roberts and Miss Mary Grogan survive. No funeral arrangements have yet been made. Mr. Grogan was a well known young horseman who had many friends in Janesville, where he had always lived, who will sympathize with the stricken family.

Father of the Bridegroom—Before cementing this close relationship I think it but right to tell you that I once had a little unpleasantness which involved the loss of my liberty for a considerable period. Bankers Denounced at a Funeral.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Dec. 21.—The funeral of John Huntington, the bank clerk who committed suicide Sunday after shooting F. N. Hayden of Chicago and A. Cromwell of Minneapolis, occurred yesterday. Rev. Stephen Phelps, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in his sermon arraigned the bank officials and the representatives of the Fidelity Trust, charging them with driving Huntington into his suicidal frenzy by their merciless questioning. The sermon has intensified the bitter feeling already existing toward Hayden and Cromwell and fears are entertained that violence will be offered them.

WHAT shall the Christmas gift be? If we had a son, which we haven't, we would say to him "stop smoking," (which he probably wouldn't) and buy with the money you would save, a home site on which to build a home or as speculation.

In case he would not listen to the advice we should buy one for him, making a present of the first payment and the contract and no doubt he would some way keep up the future easy monthly payments (even if the smoking habit had to go) and thus secure the property.

Quite an undertaking and investment to start this, say you? Not so much if one as it might at first blush seem, say we. Just as an encouragement for this plan of making Christmas presents, we will sell twenty full sized lots as good as there are in the city at ONE HUNDRED AND FIVE DOLLARS each, $5 cash down and one dollar per week for one hundred weeks and then the lot will be paid for in full. No interest, no anything, but exactly $105 for a full size lot by 132 foot lot and remember there cannot be bought a better lot at any price.

If the old folks don't avail themselves of this offer, you come in boys and girls and let us show you the lots, and we are very sure you will buy a lot and make yourself a Christmas present. We never, you never, no one else ever saw such a chance for either old or young people to get a home site. We assure you who may get these twenty lots that the lots adjoining yours shall never be sold at less than $150 to $200 each; and we feel confident you shall get a full size lot by adjoining these twenty lots that we now offer you at $105 each on easy (one dollar) weekly payments. It may seem strange to you that such a bargain is offered, and it is strange, and never again will such a chance to become a land owner occur. These twenty lots are for sale not one to a person, no man, woman, boy or girl can get but one of these twenty lots, and no lot adjoining either one of these can be bought to-day spot cash at less than $150 up. The deal is simply one of our "baiting" deals, and we shall never repeat it after these twenty lots are sold. Hadn't you better come in at once? Yours very truly, J. L. & S. H. CARRINGTON.

ASKED FOR MERCY BUT GOT POUNDED

GRIEVOUS TALE TOLD BY RICHARD
WHALEN, A SAILOR

Officer Was Clubbing a Crippled Old Man At Afton and When Whalen
Advised a Little Less Brutal Treatment
He Got a Two Inch Cut On His Head.

With blood dripping from a two-inch gash in his head, Richard Whalen staggered into the city between 11 and 12 o'clock last night.

He had come from Afton on foot, and told a grievous tale to Officer Hogan, who was the Good Samaritan who piloted him to the office of Dr. Joe Whitig, where his gaping wounds were dressed.

"I am a sailor," said he, explaining his condition to the doctor and Officer Hogan. "I sail on the lakes. I started from Chicago for Ashland, Wisconsin, to spend the holidays visiting my sister at that place. Last evening I was in Afton waiting for a train north."

While sitting in the depot with an old man who was a cripple, a burly fellow came into the depot and addressed the old man with considerable profanity.

"Are you the man who set fire to the railroad ties out here?" he demanded.

"I know nothing about it," the old man replied, and thereupon, Whalen says, the man with the cane began to pound the old cripple in vigorous style.

Clubbed For Interfering.

Whalen said that he then interfered by remonstrating against the pounding, and told the man that it was a shame to club an aged cripple in that way.

"Perhaps it was you that set fire to the ties. I'll fix you," the man with the cane replied and with this he left and returning an instant later with two railroad men, attacked me with his club, pounding me until I thought he would kill me, as I was unarmed and could not defend myself."

Whalen was pounded in a horrible manner. A long gash was revealed beneath the clothed blood on the right side of the head, the scalp being laid open two and one-half inches. There were many bruises on his head. His left hand was disabled by a blow that left the marks of the club on the fingers.

His legs, arms and back also bore marks of the wicked clubbing. He wanted a warrant for the arrest of the man who did the clubbing whom he supposed was an officer but finally decided, the police thought, to wait until his return from Ashland.

"Whalen was a respectable looking and well dressed man and appeared to me to be all right," said Officer Hogan, "and I guess he told the truth about the clubbing. He was no tramp."

A Kind of a "Round Up."

If you had looked into our office Wednesday afternoon you would find the crowd thought that we were holding a bargain sale of dry goods at 50 per cent. below New York cost. We weren't tho'. It was only a "round up" of a few of our lot buyers and they were waiting for their contracts to be filled out and signed. They came from three or four different towns in the county, from Chicago and from other sections of the country and happened to come in, several parties at once. Some of them came for a lot on our "What shall the Christmas gift be?" offer; six of those were closed between 3 and 5 p. m. Several came to buy lots and homes at regular prices and we were pushed for all we were worth to get out papers and take cash.

However by 5:30 p. m. all were waited on except two or three who were obliged to go home and come again another day. To these disappointed ones we would offer apology only they saw just how it was and were content to come back Thursday or Friday.

The "what shall the Christmas gift be" deal is still on as we have 5 or 6 of the 20 lots yet to close (at this writing). So come and get a bargain. As a fact, and we give it to you straight, there will never be such a bargain in lots again.

It is worth your while to keep your eye open for our "ade" all the time as we shall during the next few weeks offer inducements, to either housekeepers or investors that will simply astonish all who investigate and invest. Yours very truly, never more so than now,

GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

Cost Sale of Clothing.

We anticipated an immense Christmas trade, so we bought heavy for it, but so far we have been disappointed, the weather is against us, and instead of waiting until Jan. 1 to commence our annual stock reducing sale, we have commenced three days before Christmas, and give you a chance to get the finest clothing and gents' furnishing goods you ever saw at exact cost to us. See prices on 8th page.

T. J. ZIEGLER.

Supposed We Were Stuck.

December 1 we thought we had bought too many silk and initial handkerchiefs, but we have changed our mind. We bought $2,000 worth, and January 1 we will have less than $300 worth, the way they are going. Do you know why we sell so many? We can tell you, we are selling at exact cost to us.

THE windows in the stores about town are unusually attractive this year. The large windows at J. M. Bostwick & Sons present a scene of surpassing beauty and are the result of thought, and no mean artistic talent. It takes fine goods to get up such windows and also considerable time. This house is never lacking for goods, and as regards time, the decorating was done while many were sleeping. No finer windows were ever seen in Janesville, and they bespeak much for this firm's enterprise.

BOUND BY OATHS TO FORBIDDEN ORDERS

JANESVILLE CATHOLICS FEEL
A NEW RULING.

Several Had Sought Membership Recently In Secret Societies Under the Belief That the Ban Had Been Removed—Positive Statement to the Contrary.

Several prominent Janesville Catholics are in a quandary.

Relying on the recently published statement that Rome's ban had been lifted from all secret societies except the Masons, they have taken steps to gain membership. In some cases the applicants are said to be admitted, or at least one or two of the initiatory degrees have been conferred.

And now comes a shock.

A letter direct from the Vatican has been received announcing that the ban upon Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows, Sons of Temperance and similar secret orders have never been removed.

To the Catholics who put their faith in the first report and took upon themselves secret society obligations, this news is very embarrassing. They are unwilling to credit to-day's dispatch, although it gives much confirmatory detail.

The understanding is that the movement on secret societies was determined upon by the council of the archbishops of the Roman Catholic church in the United States, held in Chicago, in September, 1893. That council formulated recommendations which were forwarded to the pope, who, in turn, laid them before a conference of cardinals, which endorsed them, the pope thereupon affixing his seal to a decree of condemnation. This decree was in the form of a letter to the archbishops and bishops of the United States, and it was communicated through Mgr. Satolli.

Bishop McDonnell of Brooklyn is the first to give the decree publicity, and his course will be quickly followed by other prelates throughout the country. Bishop McQuaide of Rochester said in an interview last night.

"Up to four or five years ago, there was no question about the matter, but at that time some unauthorized person gave it out that the ban of the church had been removed from all secret societies except the Masons. The matter was brought to our attention and we investigated it, finally referring it to the Holy See. The decree is against the Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Sons of Temperance and other societies against which the same objections can be raised."

"Of course, you dunce. If we leave him to do it himself, he may open it at the wrong end."—N. Y. Weekly.

Literary Item.

"I have read every book in my husband's library. I really don't know what to do for something to read," said a Boston lady to a friend from Chicago, Mr. Lakeside.

"Why don't you get another husband?" suggested the man from Chicago.—Alex. Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

Discussion.

"What do the men do at the club, John?"

"Well, Maria, they pass most of the time praising their wives."

"Yes, and I should judge from your breath when you come home that they use very strong language in doing so."—Boston Gazette.

Why Papa Objected.

Little Willie—I was going fishing Sunday, but my papa wouldn't let me.

Rev. Dr. Sainly—That's the right kind of a papa to have. Did he tell you the reason why?

Willie—Yessir. He said there wasn't bait enough for two.—Life.

All in the Family.

First Citizen (a few years hence)—How is it that Stumper slides along so easily?

Second Citizen—He belongs to one party, his wife to the other, and both run for office at every election. One or the other is sure to win.—N. Y. Weekly.

Quite a Different Thing.

"I thought you told me that Miss Brown had spent a great deal of money on her voice."

"Well, so I did."

"But she can't sing."

"Well, I didn't say that she could, did I?"—Truth.

Pointing a Distinction.

"Are you fond of hunting?"

"It all depends," replied the man who is superciliously precise, "on whether you mean deer or a collar button."—Washington Star.

The Question of the Hour.

Penelope—So you're going to get married?

Chappie—Yes.

Penelope—Who's going to make your trousseau?—Life.

The Real Test.

Napoleon Bonaparte was great beyond the wildest dream.

But what of that? He never met a college football team.

—Detroit Free Press.

THAT DIAMOND ROBBERY.

Charlie Boy—Any news regarding the robbery?

O'Brien—Naw; but they found the tray of diamonds.

Charlie-Boy—Where did they find it?

O'Brien—They found it in a pack of cards, sonny.—Judge.

Good for Her.

Young Tutter—Do you mind, Miss Clara, if I don't wear a dress suit after this when I call?

Miss Pinkerly—Certainly not, Mr. Tutter, if you are coming on business.

—Clothing and Furnisher.

Couldn't Stand That.

"What made you get away from that house in such a hurry?" asked one tramp of a fellow-traveler. "Dog?"

"Worse'n that. The woman wore a waterfall."—Judge.

Fin De Siecle.

Miss Prim—Young Mr. Cubley has been casting admiring glances at me recently.

Miss Perte—Look out—he may want to borrow money.—Truth.

Wrote "Marching Through Georgia."

Henry C. Work, the author of "Marching Through Georgia," was a printer, who brought his first song, "Kingdom Coming," to Dr. George F. Root, then a member of a music-publishing firm of Chicago. It pleased the latter so well that he induced the composer to give up his trade and devote all his time to writing songs. He became a prosperous business man of Chicago, but lost all he had in the great fire and never recovered his prosperity. He lived the last years of his life in Hartford, and died there; and, though he was not a soldier, the Grand Army of the Republic decorates his grave with flowers, and an effort is now being made to erect a monument to his memory.

HENRY C. WORK.

The Money that Circulates Fastest.

"Hello! that's bogus," said a ticket agent passing back a well-worn nickel.

The coin looked to me exactly like the regular thing, and I was curious to know how the ticket man could tell it on sight.

"Oh, it's easy enough," he said. "Feel it."

I felt it. I couldn't feel anything but the price of one beer on it. Then I took out another nickel and felt that. They looked alike, only the spurious coin was more worn than the genuine.

"That's because they circulate faster than good ones," said the ticket man.

"Counterfeit bills and counterfeit coin," continued the philosopher, "are apt to wear out quickly. You see people always and very naturally want to get rid of them. Some man got that nickel you just gave me, don't you know, and he shoved it out immediately, the fellow who got it passed it on as soon as possible, and the next fellow bought something with it, and so on until you got it and I shoved it back on you, see? Now you know it is counterfeit you'll naturally get rid of it the first chance you get, probably on a horse car conductor; he'll give it in change to some woman and she'll put it off so quick your head'll swim. There are so many of these bad nickels and so little thought of it that they go." It takes bad money to circulate rapidly.

Signs of Defeat.

Cora—So you are sure her husband had the best of the argument? Did she tell you so?

Madge—No; but I heard her say he was a mean, hateful thing, as she went out of the room and slammed the door.—Puck.

A Pleasant Prospect.

Harry—Do you enjoy the idea of marrying a man reputed to be as miserly as your fiancée is?

Maude—Oh, yes! Don't you see that the dear fellow will be saving enough for us both!—Christmas Puck.

Not to Be Trused.

"I thought you promised to return that ten last week."

"Well, I did, Brown, but Flipperly wanted a ten for a couple of days and he hasn't returned it yet. You can't depend on Flipperly."—Judge.

Sure to Recover.

"Doctor, do you think my wife will recover?"

"Oh, yes. I told her I already had a wife picked out for you in case she didn't get well."—Life.

STAMPED OUT

Mrs. CAROLINE WEEKLEY, of Cornet, Baldwin Co., Ala., writes: "I suffered for one quarter of a century with 'fever-sore' (ulcers) on my leg and excruciating eruptions and gave up all hope of ever being well again. But I am happy to say that your Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery made a complete cure of my ailment, although I had tried different doctors and almost all known remedies without effect."
